GLOSSARY

Controlling Person, in PRC, is generally considered an individual who:

- a) Owns an interest of more than 25% of the capital in a company directly or indirectly;
- b) Owns an interest of more than 25% of the shares in a partnership directly or indirectly; or
- c) Owns an interest of more than 25% of the beneficiary rights in a trust directly or indirectly.

Entity refers to a legal person or a legal arrangement. A Trust is also considered to be an entity.

Established securities market refers generally to an exchange that is officially recognized and supervised by a governmental authority in which the market is located and that has a meaningful annual value of shares traded on the exchange.

FATCA is an abbreviation of Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act. This United States tax legislation is aimed at identifying U.S. Persons that have an account or financial assets outside of the United States.

Financial Institution (FI) means: a custodial institution; a depository institution; an investment entity; or a specified insurance company.

Non- Financial Foreign Entity (NFFE) refers to any non-US incorporated entity that is not a Foreign Financial Institution ("FFI").

Passive income refers generally to the portion of gross income that consists of:

- a) Dividends and dividend substitute payments (income equivalent to dividend);
- b) Interest and income equivalent to interest;
- c) Rents and royalties, other than rents and royalties derived in the active conduct of a trade or business conducted, at least in part, by employees of the NFFE;
- d) Annuities;
- e) Net gains from the sale or exchange of property that gives rise to passive income described under (a) to (d) above;
- f) Income from swap-contracts;
- g) Foreign currency gains;
- h) Rental income of real estate property provided that this income can be obtained by performing little to no activity.

The list above is not exhaustive. A complete overview of passive income can be found on www.irs.gov. If you are uncertain whether income is passive income, please consult a tax adviser.

Related Entity

An entity is a "Related Entity" of another Entity if either entity controls the other entity, or the two entities are under common control. For this purpose, control includes direct or indirect ownership of more than 50% of the vote or value in an entity.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, PRC may treat an entity as not a Related Entity of another entity if the two entities are not members of the same Expanded Affiliated Group ("EAG").

Specified US Person means any US Person other than those specifically excluded. The United States tax authorities (IRS) have excluded certain U.S. Persons from the requirement to be reported by financial institutions pursuant to FATCA. An entity will usually know whether it can be excluded according to specific requirements of the IRS and United States tax legislation (U.S. Internal Revenue Code). If you are uncertain whether the entity has this specific status, please visit www.irs.gov for more
